Mel,
I'm glad I've gotten to know you better. You're a lot of fun & you always think of crazy things to do! Stay sweet!
Best of luck, "78"
Cathy Smith

P.S. Have fun your next 2 years!! at lunch hour.

P.S.S. I've enjoyed our short conversation each time we meet

Well Mel,
last couple of years in school. Make them fun. Make sure you make your last year that you'll be proud of. Maybe I'll see you this summer. Good luck with whatever you decide to do with your life.
Yours truly,
"76"

To my Melan colic baby
Well 2 years have gone by fast. Only 2 more years. What a thought! I hope that ~~some~~ maybe ~~some~~ someday you find the special guy and also lucky guy.
Good luck

Love always

Ricky

Melanie, really its been nice knowing you for the last two years. You've been a good friend. Good luck luck in the future in whatever you attempt. I hope you make it out of high school.

Lots of love,
Yeni

"Try to Remember
the things you once did-
the way you once felt-
the You you once were.
Try to Remember
the things you once did.
things that bring memories of times that now seem a little better; a little brighter of times that mean so much.
Try to Remember
the way you once felt;
the tears that were shed
for someone you loved:
the joy that you felt
when someone loved you.
Try to Remember
the way you once were.
All the things that have formed the individual you now are.
Each gave something to a part of you.
Each in their own, small way.
Try to Remember.
All those times will never come again.
Only the memories
Of what once was remains in your mind."

- Maria Rogers

We Dedicate this book to our Parents.

"We look back - and see the years of growth you saw us through with patience, care and love.

We look back - and see our first steps - into learning - into growing - into loving. You helped us learn - though often we stumbled and fell. And you were always there to pick us back up again.

You helped us grow though often we hurt you. And you were always there with a kind word.

You helped us learn to love - to trust in a deep feeling we found hard at first to find. Through we often were hurt - you were always there - to lend an ear - to wipe away the tears.

Today - we look ahead - and see the years of growth yet to come.

The steps we've yet to take.

But the knowledge that you will be there, and knowing how much you care -

Makes us love you - and respect you -

For the Parents, and Individuals you are."

Class History

Once upon a time three years ago, 82 Freshmen entered the wonderland of Elmwood High School. Their first big event was Initiation, when those big bad Seniors picked on the poor defenseless Freshmen. The leaders of the troop were Rod Smith-Pres., Scott Koll-V.-Pres., Marilee Hammond-Sec., and Venisa Durst-Treas. Their one big accomplishment that first year was doing such a great job on their Homecoming float that they won first prize. They also received second on their stunt.

A year later, those Freshmen had become Sophomores; another year older, another year wiser, and 87 strong. Led by Pres.-Scott Koll, V.Pres.-Marilee Hammond, Sec.-Marcia Colgan, Treas.-Bruce Coulter, and Rep.-Annette Cunningham Oppe, that ingenious class started the annual Sophomore pop sale at the Fall Festival. Fate of Homecoming did not smile on the tribe as much that year as they received second on both float and stunt. One spectacular task they undertook was that of designing a crest for their class rings. As it turned out, this crest has been adopted by Elmwood High School and has been used on rings and graduation announcements.

Alas the clan have become Juniors. Our leaders, Gary Snider-Pres., Marilee Hammond-V.-Pres., Annette Oppe-Sec., Jerry Martin-Treas., and Pam Slone-Rep., spent the beginning of the year trying to scrape up money for prom. The magazine sale made an enormous amount of money. At Homecoming, the Juniors had charge of the dance. Again, their luck was not so good, as their float placed second. On November 7, for the class play, they presented a reader's theater of TWELVE ANGRY WOMEN. This too made tons of money. The climax of the year was on May 3, as they presented a tutti-fruitty prom entitled "A Morning in May" to the Seniors. Royalty for the occasion were Queen Debbie Howard, and King John Hulslander, Senior attendants Tammie Knight and Don Wilson, Junior attendants Diana Harlan and Gary Snider. The great band, The Ken McKay Trio, made the whole evening even better-for the teachers.

Now, finally, that troop of lowly Freshmen have become Seniors, the leaders of the school. Their leaders were Gary Snider-Pres., Vickie Maness-V. Pres., Becky Ennis-Sec., and Jerry Martin-Treas. This year, they got to pick on the Freshmen. It was fun, but the locker rooms were unbelievable. Homecoming was October 2,3,4. The court consisted of Queen Marilee Hammond, and King Gary Snider, and attendants Diana Harlan and Scott Gorham, Tracy Provence and John Welker, Marcia Colgan and Jerry Martin. This year was even better because the Trojans won the foorball game. Again, the troop came through, receiving first on both their float and stunt, a feat that hadn't been accomplished in a number of years. On May 2, the Juniors presented us with a lovely prom.

Finally, their journey through wonderland is over as they graduate on June 6, and hopefully live happily ever after.

Mr. Hamman

There are many people who have assisted us Seniors during our twelve years of school. They have been there to help and, hopefully, always will be. But, one of these people will not be here next year. Mr. Hamman is retiring after thirty-two years of teaching at Elmwood High School. Although every student of ECHS has not had Mr. Hamman, many have been in one of his classes. One thing that they all agreed on was the problem always looked so easy when he did it. The math we have learned from him has been an important asset in our daily lives.

Finally, we would like to speak for all those other students when we say thank you, Mr. Hamman, for your knowledge, your patience, and your lead-lined mixers.

SPORTS

Varsity Football

J.V. Football

Football this year was filled with both ups and downs, Though we did make some improvement, the season was somewhat disappointing. There was a brighter side to the '75 season: we broke a 21 game losing streak, won our Homecoming game, and there was a larger number of upperclassmen out than had been out in the last few years. Hopefully, this year was the start on the way to football respectability for Elmwood High School.

The cross-country team was very successful this year. Dominating the ICAC conference, the Trojans, for the second straight year, went undefeated in dual conference meets and won the conference championship. Six Trojan team members were among the top ten conference runners. The team also competed in invitational meets with large schools. In these meets, the Trojans placed first twice and finished no less than fourth in the other meets. By hard work and dedication, it looks as if a tradition of championship cross-country is developing at ECHS.

WILL THE NATURAL GAS INDUSTRY BE ALIVE WHEN YOU ARE 25?

(And do you really care?)

We're running out of natural gas . . . one of our nation's most important resources. Natural gas makes up about 1/3 of the energy used in America today. In Central Illinois it heats more than 90% of our homes and does a lot of other important jobs like cooking, clothes drying, water heating and industrial processing.

But there won't be any gas left in 10 years if we keep using it at our present rate and no more is found. That's where you come in. The energy industry is going to need a lot of help in future years to solve its problems. Engineers, geologists, chemists and good legislators will all be able to contribute their part in finding new energy sources and making the most of the ones we already have.

Sound interesting?

Mrs. Jackson, do you have a safety pin?

Blowin in the wind.

It's not nice to fool Mother Nature!

If you think it's rain, but it's not . . .it's wee wee!!!!

Will the real Carl Miars please step forward.

Judy, do you have a rag??

"Two centuries ago, the dream of a united land began.
People struggling to keep this dream alive....
Decisions to be made;
Values to set; goals to reach.
People working hard together - to build - to unite one dream of many.
A united land of freedom and opportunity.
A land united with hope and faith in one God.
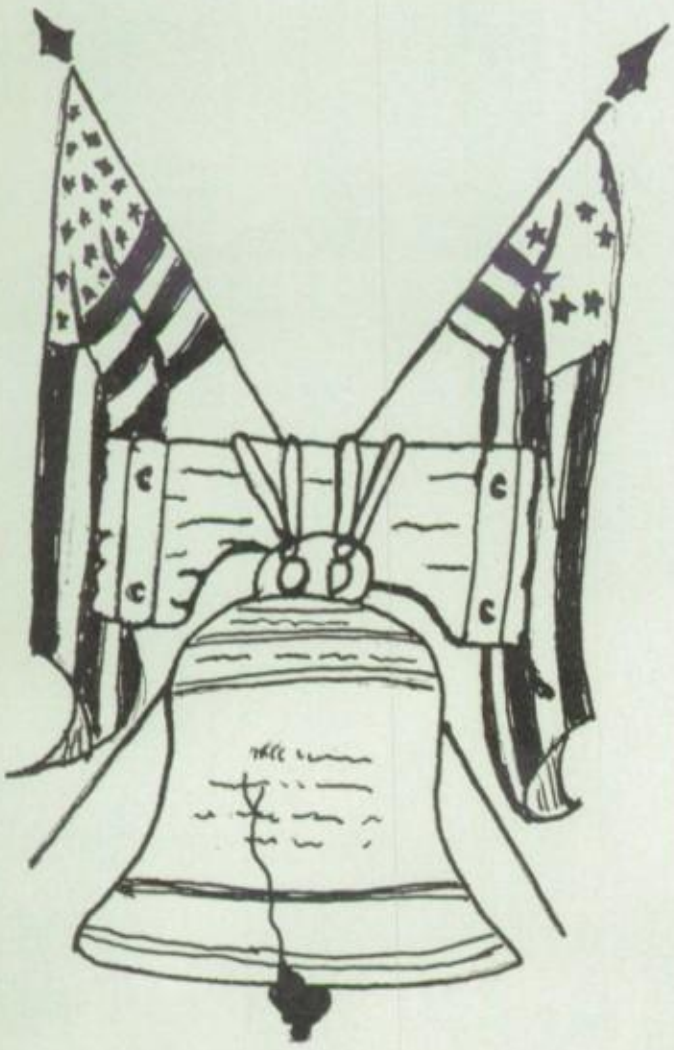
This is was their dream
A dream so strong
it overcame the impossible...
A dream that became
The United States of America...."

Maria Rogers



Mel my Pal,
I hate to say it,
but I think our friendship has weakened some. We just can't find the time to be together as much as we used to be! I'll always remember you and treasure what friendship we have; I hope you feel the same way about me. Good-luck (even though I know you're sick of that!)

Love,
Val your Pal

P.S. Remember all the good times that we have had together.

Melanie, It's been fun listening to you great speeches this semester. I'm looking forward to singing your next year. Hopefully!

Love,
Kathy

Good luck and have a wonderful summer. Hope to see you next year
at C.H.S. - I'm sure everyone misses you!! Have a great summer
